

UAE President attends graduation ceremony at Zayed II Military College in Al Ain

♦ 26 January 2026 | 📍 Abu Dhabi

President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan today attended the graduation ceremony of the 50th batch of officer cadets and the first batch of university officer cadets at Zayed II Military College in Al Ain.

His Highness congratulated the graduates and wished them success in their military careers as they prepare to serve the nation, contribute to its continued growth, and embody the UAE's deeply rooted values in promoting stability and peace across the region and the world. He also praised their future role in upholding the country's humanitarian approach on both regional and international fronts.

His Highness thanked the college's command, faculty and staff for their dedicated efforts, highlighting the important role played by military colleges in equipping the UAE Armed Forces with highly qualified personnel who are well-trained in both theoretical knowledge and practical skills.

The ceremony began with the UAE national anthem and included a military parade, an address by the college commander, and the honouring of top-performing graduates by His Highness the President. The graduates then took the official oath, and commemorative photographs were taken with His Highness.
