

UAE President receives phone call from Prime Minister of Pakistan

◆ 14 February 2026 | 📍 Abu Dhabi

President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan today received a telephone call from His Excellency Muhammad Shehbaz Sharif, Prime Minister of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan.

The two leaders reviewed various avenues for bilateral cooperation and joint action, exploring opportunities to strengthen ties in the economic and developmental sectors. The discussions underscored a commitment to shared priorities and mutual interests aimed at fostering long-term prosperity for both nations.

The two sides reaffirmed their mutual commitment to building upon the historical ties between the United Arab Emirates and Pakistan. They also discussed leveraging all available opportunities to expand the horizons of cooperation in a manner that achieves their aspirations for a more advanced and prosperous future for both nations.

The call also touched upon a number of issues and subjects of common concern, with the two leaders exchanging views on these matters.

Prime Minister Sharif expressed his profound appreciation for His Highness's commitment to advancing the UAE-Pakistan partnership. He further lauded the high-impact developmental initiatives spearheaded by the UAE in Pakistan, highlighting the sustained growth and positive trajectory of the bilateral relationship.
