UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan today welcomed His Excellency Mahamat Idriss Déby Itno, President of the Republic of Chad, who is on a working visit to the UAE during which he took part in the UAE–Chad Trade and Investment Forum.

During their meeting at Qasr Al Bahr in Abu Dhabi, the two leaders reviewed bilateral ties and explored opportunities for further collaboration, particularly in the economic, trade, development, and renewable energy sectors, to support both countries' development goals.

H.H. affirmed the UAE's commitment to strengthening partnerships with African nations to promote lasting progress and shared economic growth. He noted that this stems from the UAE's approach of building strategic relationships aimed at advancing global prosperity and securing a better future for coming generations.

The meeting also highlighted the significance of the UAE–Chad Trade and Investment Forum, held from 10 to 11 November in Abu Dhabi, which witnessed the official launch of the 'Chad Connection 2030' national development plan and explored its role in expanding economic cooperation between the two countries.

President Déby expressed his appreciation to H.H. for the UAE's hosting of the forum, noting that its outcomes mark a significant advance in bilateral relations, especially related to investment and the economy.
