UAE President, King of Jordan discuss fraternal ties

President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan held talks today with His Majesty King Abdullah II bin Al-Hussein of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, focusing on the two nations' strong fraternal relations and cooperation, as well as ways to further bolster ties on all levels for mutual benefit.

The meeting took place at Qasr Al Bateen in Abu Dhabi during a fraternal visit by His Majesty King Abdullah to the UAE. His Highness welcomed His Majesty, underlining the deep-rooted and historical ties between the UAE and Jordan and their joint aim to expand cooperation in a manner that fulfils the aspirations of their peoples.

The two leaders also reviewed a number of regional developments, with emphasis on ongoing efforts to secure a ceasefire in the Gaza Strip, ensure the continued delivery of humanitarian aid, and reject any attempts to forcibly displace the Palestinian people from their land.

They stressed the importance of intensifying efforts to promote regional stability and prevent the escalation of conflict in the region.

His Highness and His Majesty reaffirmed their commitment to continued fraternal consultation and coordination on matters of mutual concern in a way that serves the interests of both nations and supports broader Arab cooperation.

Following the meeting, His Highness hosted an iftar banquet in honour of His Majesty and the accompanying delegation.

The meeting was attended by His Highness Sheikh Mansour bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Vice President, Deputy Prime Minister, and Chairman of the Presidential Court; H.H. Sheikh Khaled bin Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi; H.H. Sheikh Hazza bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Ruler's Representative in Al Ain Region; H.H. Sheikh Saif bin Mohammed Al Nahyan; H.H.
