

UAE President confers Medal of Independence of First Order on Ambassador of Japan

◆ 30 October 2024 | 📍 Abu Dhabi

---

President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan has awarded Akio Isomata, Ambassador of Japan to the UAE, the Medal of Independence of the First Order, in recognition of his efforts during his tenure in the country, which have significantly contributed to strengthening bilateral ties across various sectors.

Ahmed bin Ali Al Sayegh, Minister of State, presented the medal to Isomata during a reception ceremony held at the Anwar Gargash Diplomatic Academy in Abu Dhabi.

During the ceremony, Al Sayegh extended his wishes for success in the future to Isomata, and commended his role in enhancing the distinguished relations between the UAE and Japan across various sectors.

For his part, Isomata expressed his sincere gratitude to President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan and commended the UAE's significant progress and achievements, which reflect the vision and commitment of the UAE's wise leadership to advance the country's global position.

The ambassador also conveyed his appreciation to all UAE government entities for their continuous support during his tenure, which enabled him to carry out his duties effectively and contributed to enhancing bilateral relations.

---

<https://www.mohamedbinzayed.ae>