

UAE President receives phone call from Kenyan President

◆ 6 July 2024 | 📍 Abu Dhabi

President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan received a phone call today from His Excellency Dr William Samoei Ruto, President of the Republic of Kenya. The discussion focused on bilateral relations and promising opportunities to enhance cooperation, particularly in the fields of economy, trade, investment, renewable energy, technology, and infrastructure. These areas represent developmental priorities for both nations and contribute to achieving sustainable economic prosperity for their peoples.

During the call, the two leaders also exchanged views on a number of issues of mutual interest.

His Highness emphasised the importance the UAE places on strengthening its relations with African states and supporting all efforts to achieve development, stability, and peace, thereby benefiting all of the region's peoples.

His Excellency President Ruto, in turn, expressed his appreciation for the UAE's initiatives in supporting the Kenyan people and bolstering his country's efforts towards progress and sustainable development. He affirmed Kenya's commitment to enhancing its relations with the UAE and expanding cooperation in various fields that benefit both nations.
