

UAE President welcomes Mongolian counterpart, oversees exchange of key memoranda

◆ 28 November 2023 | 📍 Abu Dhabi

President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan today received His Excellency Ukhnaa Khurelsukh, President of Mongolia, who is on a working visit to the UAE.

During the meeting at Qasr Al Bahr in Abu Dhabi, His Highness and President Khurelsukh discussed cooperation between the UAE and Mongolia, focusing on prospects for further collaboration, particularly in the economic, investment, developmental, and renewable energy sectors to serve mutual interests and support growth and prosperity in both countries.

Additionally, His Highness and the Mongolian President exchanged views on various issues of joint interest. The meeting also addressed the upcoming UN Climate Change Conference (COP28), starting on 30 November at Expo City Dubai, highlighting its importance in identifying effective and lasting solutions to shared global challenges, including accelerating climate action and sustainable development for a better future for all of humanity.

Furthermore, His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan and His Excellency Ukhnaa Khurelsukh oversaw the exchange of memoranda of understanding between the two countries, aimed at developing bilateral cooperation. These included memoranda on visa exemption for diplomatic, special, official, service, and ordinary passports; an MoU on establishing a joint committee between the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of both nations; an MoU on exchanging governmental expertise; an MoU between the Emirates Policy Center and the Institute for International Studies of the Mongolian Academy of Sciences; an MoU between the UAE's Digital School and Mongolia's General Authority for Education on cooperation in digital learning initiatives; and an MoU between the Mongolian National Radio and Abu Dhabi Media Network.
