

UAE President welcomes participants of UN Police Performance Workshop

◆ 1 October 2024 | 📍 Abu Dhabi

President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan today welcomed participants of the third UN Police Performance Workshop, which is being hosted by the Ministry of Interior in Abu Dhabi.

H.H. Lt. General Sheikh Saif bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of the Interior, accompanied His Highness the President at the reception.

During the meeting at Qasr Al Bahr in Abu Dhabi, His Highness greeted the guests and wished them success in their efforts to develop recommendations that will contribute to enhancing police work in line with best practices, aimed at overcoming various challenges.

He emphasised the importance of dialogue and the exchange of expertise and experiences among international agencies to strengthen their ability to maintain peace and security.

His Highness also reaffirmed the UAE's ongoing commitment to enhancing international cooperation and coordination for safer societies. He praised the vital role played by international police forces in maintaining peace and security, particularly in areas affected by conflict.

The workshop, being held for the third time outside the United Nations headquarters, focuses on the performance management of UN police leaders in peacekeeping operations during wars and crises, as well as future frameworks for international police work, development opportunities, anticipated challenges, and other related topics.
