

UAE and Paraguay Presidents discuss bilateral cooperation

◆ 9 July 2024 | 📍 Abu Dhabi

UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan and His Excellency Santiago Peña, President of the Republic of Paraguay, discussed opportunities to develop various aspects of cooperation and collaboration between the two countries during a phone call today. The discussions focused on economic, investment, and infrastructure sectors, in addition to food security, renewable energy, and other areas that support sustainable development and contribute to achieving both nations' aspirations for progress and prosperity.

During the call, both sides affirmed their mutual commitment to continuing to advance bilateral relations, leveraging current capabilities and resources to build fruitful partnerships in various fields that advance the shared ambitions of both countries.

His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan stated that the UAE is keen on building sustainable economic and developmental partnerships with different countries worldwide, based on its approach rooted in cooperation, mutual respect, and common interests to achieve development and prosperity for all.

<https://www.mohamedbinzayed.ae>